RUSSIAN WATERWAYS

11-night cruise from St. Petersburg to Moscow on board the AmaKatarina

U.S. Departure: June 11, 2013

Embarkation Date: June 12, 2013

June 11, DEPART USA/CANADA.

Board your overnight flight to Russia.

June 12, ARRIVE IN ST. PETERSBURG, RUSSIA - EMBARKATION.

Arrive in St. Petersburg and embark the ship. Relax in your stateroom or explore the city before meeting your fellow travelers at the Welcome Dinner. (D)

June 13, ST. PETERSBURG.

One of Russia's former capitals, this city rivals Paris or Venice for its romantic image. Dating from the beginning of the 18th-century it was built to the exact specifications ordered by Peter the Great. After breakfast, enjoy a hydrofoil journey to The State Hermitage, one of the oldest and largest Museums in the world. Founded by Catherine the Great, the museum is a complex of six buildings, including the former Winter Palace, and houses nearly 3 million works of art including the largest collection of paintings in the world. After your visit, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. This afternoon, a sightseeing tour of this beautiful city shows you Nevsky Prospect, Palace Square and St. Isaacs Cathedral. You will also visit the Peter & Paul Fortress. (B,L,D)

June 14, ST. PETERSBURG.

This morning, depart by hydrofoil for Peterhof, St. Petersburg's most spectacular Imperial Estate. Also known as the "Russian Versailles," the palace was built on the shore of the Gulf of Finland by Peter the Great, initially as a resting place en route to the Imperial Naval base. Your tour includes the Lower Gardens, the Grand Cascade and Samson Fountain, commemorating Russia's victory over Sweden during the Great Northern War. This evening, you will experience a night of traditional, Russian ballet at the Hermitage Theater or choose to attend a folkloric show. (B,L,D)

June 15, ST. PETERSBURG.

Today visit the nearby town of Pushkin, where Catherine's Palace was the summer residence of the Russian Czars. This optional excursion includes a tour of the interior of the Cameron Gallery which features state rooms and dining rooms in Baroque and Neoclassical style. You will also visit the reconstructed Amber Room, considered to be the Eighth Wonder of the World, and features an room covered with panels of amber. The remainder of the day is at your leisure. (B,L,D)

June 16, SVIRSTROY.

Svirstroy is 100 miles from St. Petersburg with a population of only 1,000. During your visit, you will sample Russia's popular grilled shashlyk, a form of shish kebab. Afterwards, you will have some free time to stroll through this unspoiled Russian village and browse for irresistible handmade trinkets. This is the best place to do souvenir shopping before reaching St. Petersburg. (B,L,D)

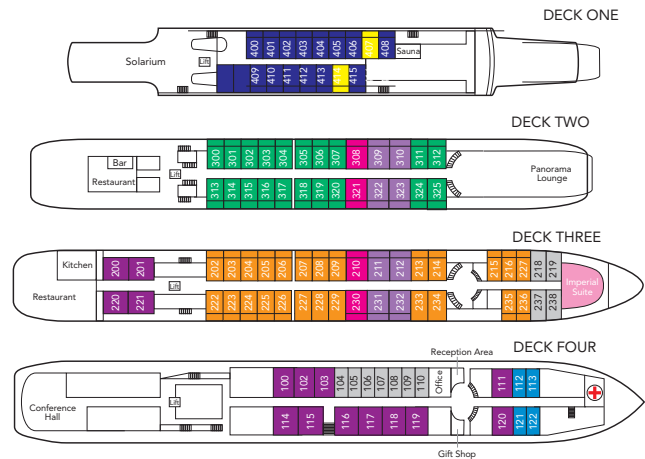

June 17, KIZHI.

Kizhi is an island that is situated at the north end of Lake Onega and home to some of the most amazing wooden architecture in Russia. Forever linked to Novgorod the Great, the style of architecture reflects its early introduction to Christianity. In 1764 locals built the Church of Intercession, its towering walls and 22 domes, without the use of a single nail. Your walking tour includes the Museum of Wooden Architecture. (B,L,D)

June 18, GORITSY.

Goritsy is a peaceful farming town and a typical Russian village. The tour includes the Monastery of St. Cyril on the White lake and the Museum of Icons. Return to the ship to sail for Yaroslavl. (B,L,D)

June 19, YAROSLAVL.

Founded in 1010 by Prince Yaroslav the Wise, it is one of Russia's oldest cities, tracing its roots back to the Vikings. The city stretches for miles along the confluence of the Volga and Kotorosl Rivers. Explore the city's history through its architecture, including the fortified 12th-century Transfiguration Monastery and the Yaroslavl Museum of Russian Art, the former residence of the Governor of Yaroslavl. (B,L,D)

June 20, UGLICH.

Located on the banks of the Volga, Uglich was founded by merchants in 1148. Rich in history, Uglich is home to some of Russia's most beautiful churches and cathedrals, and you'll see a sampling during your city tour. The most noteworthy include the Chambers of Prince Dimitry and the magnificent Church of Dimitry on the Blood, dedicated to the tragic story of Ivan the Terrible's son. Uglich is also the site of an AMAWATERWAYS exclusive shore excursion. You'll visit the home of a local Russian family, learning about everyday life in Uglich and sampling Russian hospitality first-hand. (B,L,D)

June 21, MOSCOW.

Your tour of the Moscow Metro system, easily the most architecturally extravagant subway system in the world. Many of the stations are adorned with chandeliers, sculptures and frescoes more reminiscent of a palace than a metro station. You will also visit Poklonnaya (Bow) Hill, where you will see the WWII monument. Tonight, you can enjoy an optional visit to the Moscow Circus. (B,L,D)

June 22, MOSCOW.

This morning, tour within the walls of the Kremlin introduces you to the former royal residence of the Czars and main center of the Russian Orthodox faith. Then enjoy lunch on a day boat as you cruise the Moscow River past the Kremlin. Late this afternoon, your city tour includes the Red Square where you will see the Kremlin and Lenin's Tomb. During free time, visit the iconic St. Basil's Cathedral or perhaps the GUM, the vast Soviet-Era main department store. (B,L,D)

June 23, MOSCOW - DISEMBARKATION.

Transfer to the airport for your onward flight. (B)
